

First Grade Newsletter

Forest Pines Drive Elementary

September 30, 2019

During the past two weeks, we...

- o officially began our first narrative writing unit! Students have started to illustrate and write their first personal narrative.
- o learned about short vowels: u, o, and e, as well as the different sounds that "th", "sh", and "wh" makes.
- o became experts at place value! Students have learned that a two-digit number is made up of groups of tens and ones.
- o began learning about the sun, moon, and stars through both non-fiction and fiction literature.

Important Dates:

- o (10/17) Open House- 5:45 pm-7:30pm
- o (10/18) FOX TROT FUN RUN!

~Don't forget to send in Fox Trot Donations for our school!

~Please be sure to check your child's binder each night for important information.
